The Korean Journal of Area Studies (KJAS)

1) The length of the MS-word text, including ENDNOTES, normally should not exceed 7,500 words (7,000 words ± 500 words).

2) Authors should adhere to the use of American-English.

3) Authors should include a biographical sketch of up to 200 words (on a title page), providing information about their educational background and degrees, current and former career positions, organizational affiliations, publications, and professional interests.

* Example of Biographical Profile:

Alexander J. Groth, (Ph.D., Columbia University) is a research professor at the University of California, Davis, where he has taught comparative politics since 1962. He is the author and co-author of over 100 scholarly articles and monographs, and author or editor of 12 books, including Comparative Politics: A Distributive Approach (1971); Comparative Resource Allocation (1984); and Revolution and Political Change (1996). His research interests have been focused on issues of political stability and comparative public policy.

4) Authors should enclose an abstract of 200 words (±20 words).

5) All figures and tables should be in monochrome, black and white. The source should be cited. Citation style is the same as the footnote style. Each table or figure should have individual numbering.

6) The KJAS carries Footnotes only. References and endnotes should be converted to Footnotes, and authors should follow the KJAS Footnote Format as outlined below.

The KJAS Footnotes Format

Authors should carefully follow the following footnote of the KJAS:
i. Books

ii. Book Chapters

iii. Dissertations

iv. Journals/Periodicals

v. Magazine or Newspaper Articles

vi. Conference Papers
Fumio Tanimura, “Chosensenso ni okeru taikiraisen” [Japan’s Minesweeping Operations during the Korean War], paper presented at the Korea–Japan international seminar hosted by the ROK Institute of Military History Compilation in Seoul on 24 October 2002.
vii. Use of Multiple Sources

viii. Internet Source Citation

Ibid. can be used only when indicating the source immediately before the relevant footnote.

Op. cit. may not be used. To indicate sources already mentioned, an abbreviated form should be used, for example:

The KJAS Bibliography

1. Books

2. Ph.D. Dissertation

3. Journal Articles

Kaplan, Robert D. “Center Stage for the Twenty-first Century.” Foreign Affairs 88, no. 2 (March/April 2009).
4. Chapter in a Book

5. Conference Papers

Tanimura, Fumio. “Chosensenso ni okeru taikiraisen” [Japan’s Minesweeping Operations during the Korean War], paper presented at the Korea–Japan international seminar hosted by the ROK Institute of Military History Compilation in Seoul on 24 October 2002.

6. Newspaper Articles

7. Internet Source Citation

8. For Multiple References to the same author:

9. For Multiple References to the same author and year:
